

Sugar Moon

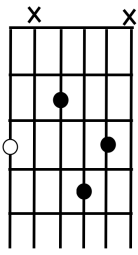

Cindy Walker & Bob Wills

1945

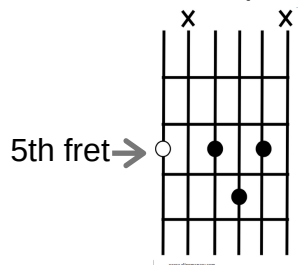

Perhaps the finest female composer in country music history, Cindy Walker became a charter member of the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame in 1970 and was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame in 1997. Renowned for her ability to tailor songs for diverse stylists, she has had Top Ten hits during each of the five decades spanning the 1940s through the 1980s. Her credits include such country standards as “Cherokee Maiden” and “You Don’t Know Me.” (Country Music Hall of Fame)
